

City of Renton Surplus Agreement For Sale of Personal Protective Equipment

This Agreement is between the City of Renton, a Washington municipal corporation, ("Renton") and Cuautla Fire, a [municipal entity type], ("Purchaser") (collectively the "Parties"). Department entity

WHEREAS, Renton desires to dispose of the Personal Protective Equipment identified in Exhibit A, which is attached and incorporated by this reference, (hereinafter referred to as the "PPE");

WHEREAS, Purchaser desires to purchase the PPE in an "as is" condition and fully accept all known and unknown risks and responsibilities with regard to its intended use of the PPE;

WHEREAS, Renton has determined that its sale of PPE to Purchaser complies with Renton City Policy #250-10; and

NOW THEREFORE THE PARTIES AGREE as follows:

1. Purchaser agrees to pay Renton the amount of zero ($ 0), plus any applicable sales taxes, as a full value exchange for the PPE.
2. In consideration of such payment and the other promises and agreements herein, Renton agrees to transfer ownership of the PPE to Purchaser.
3. Purchaser acknowledges that the PPE was or may have been surplus by Renton because Renton deems the PPE to be outdated, expired, or no longer safe for its intended use. The reasons for surplus may include the PPE's failure to meet applicable safety requirements or guidelines, including but not limited to state regulations and National Fire Protection Association Standards. Purchaser is solely responsible for educating itself and complying with all applicable safety requirements and/or guidelines.
4. Purchaser agrees that Renton has not made and Purchaser has not relied upon any written or oral representations or warranties as to the PPE's fitness for use in any application. Purchaser accepts sole responsibility for accepting the PPE in "as is" condition without reliance on any statements or promises by Renton outside of this Agreement. To the extent previous oral or written representations were made by Renton or its employees, such representations are repudiated. Purchaser's decision to purchase the PPE is based upon Purchaser's own observations and inspection of the PPE and acceptance of any risks involved in using the PPE for its intended purposes. Purchaser acknowledges that the PPE may have been altered or deteriorated from its original condition so that use of the PPE in accordance with manufacturer recommendations may no longer be safe, regardless of whether any specific alteration or deterioration has been expressly disclosed by Renton.
